1 You read the following letter in your local newspaper:

Dear Editor,

I'm sick and tired of seeing so many annoying people blocking our streets these days. If they're not slumped on the floor with a plastic cup next to them, hoping to collect pennies, they are asleep in the doorways... Then you've got people running up to you to ask you to sign up for something... and then the entertainers. It can be quite intimidating. If you're lucky to get past those people, you've got your food and coffee stalls. Is there no end to the obstructions on the high street?

I am a retired nurse and don't have the time to deal with all these distractions and obstructions when I go into town. Can't something be done about it?

Yours faithfully,

Angela McKenzie
