Section A: Imaginative writing

- 1 Write the opening of a story called Setting Off, about an expedition which has taken many months to prepare for. In your writing, create a sense of excitement and anticipation.
- 2 Write two contrasting diary entries (300–450 words each): the first by a teacher on his first day of work; and the second by the same teacher on his last day of work before retirement. In your writing, create a sense of outlook and mood.
- 3 Write a descriptive piece called The Crowd. In your writing, create a sense of atmosphere, and focus on sound, movement and colour to help your reader imagine the scene.

Section B: Writing for an audience

- 4 In class, you have been discussing whether it is a good idea to take a year off from formal education before going to university. Write an article for your school website about the pros and cons of taking a 'gap year'.
- 5 A new luxury hotel has recently been built in an old part of your town. Write two contrasting reviews (300–450 words each) of the hotel: one praising it, and the other criticising it.
- 6 Your headteacher has asked you to give a speech to your year group about a free-time activity that you are very good at. Write the text for the speech. In your writing, create a sense of enthusiasm for the activity and a desire to share this enthusiasm with others.
