Notes

In the case of private candidates or distant tutored candidates, the centre must ensure that:

- The tutor/teacher has acquainted themselves thoroughly with the general standard of candidates' work before accepting coursework for Internal Assessment. Work submitted by candidates that is atypical or inconsistent with their general standard may raise concerns over authenticity.
- Sufficient on-going regular monitoring of the candidates' examination coursework has taken place.
- Centres are reminded that they must comply with restrictions that may apply to entries e.g. the exclusion of Private candidates from a specification.
