Anti-terror laws, 2001

The Anti-terrorism Crime and Security Act, 2001 aimed to protect the United Kingdom (UK) following a terrorist attack in New York.

The Act gave the government power to expel international terrorists from the UK. In some cases, a foreign citizen suspected of terrorist activity could be imprisoned without charge or trial and without a time limit.

For three years, a group of men were imprisoned under this Act. They had not been found guilty of any offence and were given no reasons for their imprisonment.

After protests from pressure groups and reconsideration by Parliament, the law was changed.

Study Source 6 and answer Questions 34 and 35.

Source 6Call to loosen 'damaging and restrictive' immigration controls.

We are calling on the United Kingdom (UK) Government to loosen immigration controls.

Seeking to reduce immigration by limiting the number of skilled migrants from non-European Union (EU) countries is one of the UK government's greatest mistakes. Now is the time to raise the limit of 20,700 visas that can be issued to skilled non-EU workers each year.

Easy access to international talent is essential for UK business. The current limit on non-EU visas is holding back growth. Allowing our members to hire from an international pool of mobile, talented workers will help fill vital skills gaps.

34. Which type of organisation is most likely to have made the statement in Source 6?

- A a trade union
- B an employers' association
- C a human rights pressure group
- D the Supreme Court

Your answer

[1]

35. Study Source 6. If the government takes this advice, which of the following is most likely to happen?

- A Small increases in overall immigration and little impact on welfare claims.
- B Many more immigrants coming to the UK and claiming welfare benefits.
- C Many more workers arriving from the EU to work.
- D Large increases in asylum seekers coming to the UK.

Your answer

[1]

SAMPLE MARK SCHEME

Duration: 50 minutes

MAXIMUM MARK 50

DRAFT

This document consists of 8 pages

PREPARATION FOR MARKING: SCORIS

1. Make sure that you have accessed and completed the relevant training packages for on-screen marking: scoris assessor Online Training; OCR Essential Guide to Marking.
2. Make sure that you have read and understood the mark scheme and the question paper for this unit. These are posted on the RM Cambridge Assessment Support Portal <http://www.rm.com/support/ca>
3. Log-in to scoris and mark the required number of practice responses (“scripts”) and the number of required standardisation responses

YOU MUST MARK 10 PRACTICE AND 10 STANDARDISATION RESPONSES BEFORE YOU CAN BE APPROVED TO MARK LIVE SCRIPTS.

MARKING

1. Mark strictly to the mark scheme.
2. Marks awarded must relate directly to the marking criteria.
3. The schedule of dates is very important. It is essential that you meet the scoris 50% and 100% (traditional 40% Batch 1 and 100% Batch 2) deadlines. If you experience problems, you must contact your Team Leader (Supervisor) without delay.
4. If you are in any doubt about applying the mark scheme, consult your Team Leader by telephone or the scoris messaging system, or by email.
5. Work crossed out:
 - a. where a candidate crosses out an answer and provides an alternative response, the crossed out response is not marked and gains no marks
 - b. if a candidate crosses out an answer to a whole question and makes no second attempt, and if the inclusion of the answer does not cause a rubric infringement, the assessor should attempt to mark the crossed out answer and award marks appropriately.
6. Where a multiple choice question has only a single, correct response and a candidate provides two responses, then no marks should be awarded.
7. When a candidate provides contradictory responses, then no mark should be awarded even if one of the answers is correct.
8. Always check the pages (and additional objects if present) at the end of the response in case any answers have been continued there. If the candidate has continued an answer there then add a tick to confirm that the work has been seen.
9. There is a NR (No Response) option. Award NR (No Response)
 - if there is nothing written at all in the answer space
 - OR if there is a comment which does not in anyway relate to the question (e.g. 'can't do', 'don't know')
 - OR if there is a mark (e.g. a dash, a question mark) which isn't an attempt at the questionNote: Award 0 marks - for an attempt that earns no credit (including copying out the question)
10. The scoris comments box is used by your team leader to explain the marking of the practice responses. Please refer to these comments when checking your practice responses. Do not use the comments box for any other reason.
If you have any questions or comments for your team leader, use the phone, the scoris messaging system, or e-mail.

Assistant Examiners will send a brief report on the performance of candidates to your Team Leader (Supervisor) by the end of the marking period. The Assistant Examiner's Report Form (AERF) can be found on the RM Cambridge Assessment Support Portal (and for traditional marking it is in the Instructions for Examiners). The report should contain notes on particular strengths displayed as well as common errors or weaknesses. Constructive criticism of the question paper/mark scheme is also appreciated.
