TO BE OPENED ON RECEIPT BY EXAMINATION OFFICER PRIOR TO DATE OF EXAMINATION

INSTRUCTIONS TO CENTRES

For Section A of this examination, candidates are required to view a short extract in DVD format.

Centres need to provide replay and viewing facilities for candidates and ensure that conditions in the examination room are adequate.

DVDs may be retained by centres to enable candidates to see the standards required for this examination and to practise examination techniques.

INSTRUCTIONS TO INVIGILATORS

- Before the examination begins, candidates should be given approximately two sheets of paper for making notes on the audio-visual resource for Section A. These notes are for candidates' use only and should not be submitted with the Answer Books for assessment.
- 2. Before playing the extract, allow candidates five minutes to read through the questions in Section A. This is included in the 2 hours 15 minutes allowed.

NOTE: Candidates must be allowed to read the questions before viewing the extract.

- 3. Play the DVD which is provided for Section A. All instructions needed by candidates are on the cover of the Answer Book and duplicated on the DVD.
- 4. DO NOT SWITCH OFF THE DVD UNTIL THE EXTRACT HAS BEEN PLAYED THREE TIMES (approximately 25 minutes).
- 5. The candidates then have the remaining time (approximately 1 hour 45 minutes) to complete the examination.
